

THE UNIVERSITY OF AKRON FACT SHEET 2023-24

(All data through October 2023 unless otherwise noted)

UA MISSION

The University of Akron, a publicly assisted metropolitan institution, strives to develop enlightened members of society. It offers comprehensive programs of instruction from associate through doctoral levels; pursues a vigorous agenda of research in the arts, sciences and professions; and provides service to the community. The University pursues excellence in undergraduate education and distinction in selected areas of graduate instruction, inquiry and creative activity.

UA VISION

The University of Akron will be a leading public research university with an unsurpassed commitment to community engagement with a great American legacy city, Akron. We will:

- Be an opportunity university for all types of learners
- Be known as a willing and constructive partner for business, government and the non-profit sector
- Be an institution of innovation willing to invest in unique approaches that increase opportunity for students and reduce costs
- Be a diverse, equitable and inclusive university
- Sponsor an array of superb academic programs relevant to the future
- Make and keep promises to our students, ourselves and this community

BRIEF HISTORY OF UA

- Founded as Buchtel College in 1870 by Ohio Universalist Convention, including industrialist John R. Buchtel
- Buchtel College trustees transferred the institution and its assets to the city of Akron in 1913, name changed to The University of Akron in 1926
- World's first courses in rubber chemistry offered beginning in 1909. The Rubber Technical Institute is established in 1942
- In 1967 transitioned from municipal to state university
- A campus enhancement program in the 2000s resulted in 22 new buildings and 34 acres of new green space added to the now 218-acre campus
- Celebrated 150th anniversary in 2020
