Understanding Fiscal Responsibility: Teacher Institute

A paid professional development opportunity for teachers and pre-service teachers

JULY 16-19, 2018
9:00 am – 2:30 pm
The University of Akron

Join us for a paid professional development opportunity where middle/high school social studies teachers will review and gain access to the Understanding Fiscal Responsibility (UFR) curriculum. Participants will gain insights and teaching materials on the federal budget, the national debt and deficit, and national fiscal policies and practices.

Outside of receiving access to the entire UFR curriculum and expert faculty instruction on its implementation, participants completing program requirements will be awarded a stipend ($400 stipend for teachers, $150 for university students).

Space is Limited! Open registration from March 20 - June 1
