Los Angeles, CA -- Assistant U.S. Attorney – Criminal & National Security Division – U.S. Attorney's Office Central District of California

AkronLawJobs No. 8695 Overview: The United States Attorney's Office (USAO) for the Central District of California is responsible for representing the federal government in virtually all litigation involving the United States in the Central District of California. This includes criminal prosecutions for violations of federal law, civil lawsuits by and against the government, and actions to collect judgments and restitution on behalf of victims and taxpayers.

Duties: Assistant United States Attorneys (AUSAs) prosecute federal cases in the Central District of California and advise federal law enforcement agents on investigations, present cases to the grand jury, try cases before the United States District Court, and represent the United States in criminal appeals before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. All initial attorney appointments to the Department of Justice are made on a 14 month (temporary) basis pending favorable adjudication of a background investigation.

Required Qualifications: Applicants must possess a J.D. degree, be an active member of the bar (any jurisdiction), and have at least 3 years post J.D. experience. If not already an active member of the California bar, any applicant hired will be required to take (prior to their entry on duty date) and subsequently pass the California bar exam. AUSAs must become active members of the California bar and maintain California bar membership.

Preferred Qualifications: Litigation experience, superior academic record, excellent writing skills, impeccable character, a demonstrated interest in public service, courtroom presence, and the ability to work with and relate to a wide variety of people are all taken into account. Most attorneys hired have several years of experience, although highly qualified recent graduates with some experience in practice or as a judicial clerk are also considered. Ties to the Central District of California will be considered.

Salary: AUSA pay is administratively determined based, in part, on the number of years of professional attorney experience. The range of basic pay is $52,329 to $122,784 plus locality pay where authorized.

Travel: Travel may be required between 1-5 nights per month or more depending on the needs of any particular case assignment, both within and outside the district.

Relocation: Relocation expenses will not be authorized.

How to apply: You must follow these directions EXACTLY, to be considered for this position. Attorneys seeking a position as an AUSA should complete the PDF application found at <https://www.justice.gov/usao-cdca/employment/attorneyslawyers> and create a second PDF containing a cover letter to the attention of Deputy United States Attorney Wesley Hsu, resume, law school transcript, and brief writing sample (preferably 10 pages or less). Please include the cover letter, resume, law school transcript, and writing sample in a single PDF IN THAT ORDER. Please be sure to indicate that you are applying for the Criminal and National Security Divisions and include all jurisdictions in which admitted to practice law. The two PDFs should be e-mailed to USACAC.AUSAHiring@usdoj.gov

Deadline: October 18, 2017.

Boise, ID – Hybrid position Second Chair Counsel in Capital Litigation Unit and Deputy State Appellate Public Defender – Idaho State Appellate Public Defender

AkronLawJobs No. 8816 Overview: The State Appellate Public Defender is a law office which provides appellate and post-conviction representation to indigent defendants pursuant to Idaho Code 19-868. The Capital Litigation Unit (CLU) represents indigent clients on direct appeal and in post-conviction proceedings who have been convicted of murder and sentenced to death. The Appellate Unit (AU) represents indigent defendants in felony cases in Idaho's appellate courts.

Description: Announcement #NONCLS052097 – note this number in your cover letter

Salary Range $65,000 - $83,000 Annually (DOE) - Plus Competitive Benefits

The position will be filled as a mixed AU/CLU position initially but will transition to a full-time CLU position.

Specific Duties: CLU Second Chair Counsel works collaboratively with lead counsel, an investigator, mitigation specialist and an administrative assist, to zealously represent indigent capital defendants throughout post-conviction proceedings in the district court, and on appeal, through the reinvestigation and re-imagination of both the guilt and penalty phases of the case. The primary responsibilities of Second Chair Counsel include, but are not limited to: Developing and maintaining healthy relationships of mutual trust and respect through regular client contact; Treating judges, court staff, opposing counsel, witnesses, and all other case participants professionally; In collaboration with other team members, identifying and vetting experts, identifying lay witnesses, and conducting prioritizing factual and mitigation investigation; Assisting lead counsel in making informed and reasonable strategic decisions, and filling that role in lead counsel's absence; Working collaboratively with other team members and experts to develop a cohesive post-conviction strategy; In collaboration with other team members, assisting with the identification and timely briefing of post-conviction issues; Assisting with motion practice in district court post-conviction proceedings, including but not limited to filing an initial petition for post-conviction proceedings, including but not limited to filing an initial petition for post-conviction relief, any subsequent amendments, as needed, and discovery requests; Assisting with and conducting depositions of trial counsel, experts, and other relevant witnesses, in collaboration with other team members; Assisting with preparation for and presentation of evidence at evidentiary hearing in district court post-conviction proceedings; Working with integrity and professionalism to zealously represent the client with dignity and respect, while maintaining confidentiality and client loyalty; In collaboration with lead counsel, identifying and briefing appellate issues; Working closely with lead counsel and the administrative-assistant to set realistic deadlines for completion of first drafts of pleadings and briefs, so that a compelling and quality pleading or brief is submitted on the client's behalf; Ensuring loyalty to former clients by facilitating the work of successor counsel to gain relief for the client; Any other tasks necessary to the competent, zealous, and effective representation of the client. A Deputy State Appellate Public Defender in the AU represents indigent defendants on appeal in Idaho's appellate courts in felony cases. Primary responsibilities include, but are not limited to: Communicating effectively with, and competently advising, clients whose cases are pending on appeal; Carefully reviewing trial court records and fully evaluating potential issues for appeal; Conducting thorough legal research; Drafting clear, concise appellate motions and briefs; and Delivering persuasive oral arguments before the Idaho Court of Appeals and the Idaho Supreme Court.

Minimum Qualifications: JD and must be licensed to practice law in the State of Idaho, or in the process of seeking admission to the Idaho State Bar. A commitment to indigent defense is essential. Must also be committed to following the ABA Guidelines for the Appointment and Performance of Defense Counsel in Death Penalty cases and the Supplementary Guidelines for the Mitigation Function of Defense Teams in Death Penalty cases, as the minimum standards for high-quality representation. Preference will be given to candidates who meet the qualifications of Idaho Criminal Rule 44.3 for appellate/post-conviction or co-counsel in death penalty cases. Trial experience is strongly preferred. Must have excellent research, writing, and communication skills, as is a commitment to team-centered representation. Must be detail-oriented and able to exercise sound professional judgment. Must be able to interact with diverse individuals, including but not limited to clients, their families, prosecutors, other attorneys, investigators, judges, court clerks, experts, witnesses, and members of the general public, is essential. Must be able to maintain client confidentiality and work independently with minimal supervision, and also work collaboratively with other team members. Must be able to work occasional evenings and weekends to meet deadlines. Must be proficient with Microsoft Office applications, including Outlook, Word, and excel. Experience with ProLaw and Westlaw Next is preferred.

How to apply: E-mail submission IS PREFERRED to rmurray@sapd.state.id.us OR you may direct your materials to: Rachel Murray, Office Administrator, Idaho State Appellate Public Defender, 322 E. Front Street, Suite 570, Boise, ID 83702 – your resume, cover letter, three letters of recommendation and two recent writing samples.

Washington, DC – 2018-2020 Gault Fellowship – National Juvenile Defender Center

AkronLawJobs No. 8731 Overview: Recent law school graduates (Class of 2017 or 2018) are invited to apply for a two-year juvenile defense fellowship at the National Juvenile Defender Center (NJDC) in Washington, DC starting in September 2018. The Gault Fellow is in honor of the U.S. Supreme Court case In re Gault. The Gault decision extended to juveniles many of the same due process protections afforded adults accused of crimes, including the right to counsel.

Duties: The Gault Fellows collaborate with NJDC staff to develop legal and policy initiatives around a broad range of juvenile defense issues. The Fellows perform extensive legal research and analysis for NJDC and assist with the provision of training and technical assistance to the juvenile defense community. The Fellows work closely with juvenile defense attorneys, public defender offices, law schools, legal clinics, and nonprofit law centers to improve access to counsel and the quality of representation for all children. The Fellows write reports, articles, issue briefs, and fact sheets to inform the field, and additionally review the content and citations of all materials developed by NJDC. The Fellows may also assist in long-term research and writing on a variety of high-level reform projects. Each Fellow is expected to proactively initiate projects to improve the provision of justice in the juvenile delinquency system.

Qualifications: Recent law graduates (2017 or 2018) with excellent legal research, writing, and analytical skills, an ability to work independently, and superb attention to detail. Knowledge of juvenile delinquency law is helpful but not required; a demonstrated interest in juvenile rights, criminal law, civil rights, and racial and social justice is essential. Should be hardworking, self-motivated, well-organized, possess a positive attitude and a sense of humor, and have the proven ability to work with a wide range of people. Will be expected to begin the fellowship in September 2018, ending in August 2020, must be able to commit to the full two years, and must have the capacity for occasional work-related travel.

Salary and Benefits: The Gault Fellow works for two years and is provided a first year salary of $45,000 with the possibility of an increase in the second year, plus full health benefits.

How to apply: Send your Resume, Cover Letter, Three References with Contact Information, A short (approx. 250 words) summary and analysis of the landmark juvenile rights case In re Gault, 387 U.S. 1 (1967), with the subject line "2018-2020 Gault Fellowship Application - [Last Name]" to inquiries@njdc.info as a single .pdf file.

Deadline: October 30, 2017
