Application to Enroll in a Controlled Miscellaneous General Writing Requirement (9200:610)

The Controlled Miscellaneous General Writing Requirement (Misc. GWR) is used when there is no GWR "tagged" with a specific course available. Students intending to enroll in a controlled, Misc. GWR must first have approval of the advisor selected by the student. The advisor* should be a law faculty member who has expertise in the topic of the student's paper.

GWR is a 0 credit required paper which is graded as Credit/No-Credit. Enrollment for the Misc. GWR will be authorized AFTER this application is signed and approved by the advisor*.

*Any student who wishes to write a GWR on a topic relating to intellectual property under the supervision of one who is not a full-time law faculty member must obtain the approval of the director of the law school intellectual property program as to topic. In order to be registered for the Misc. GWR, you must return this completed form signed and dated by you and your advisor to law student affairs in the dean's office or email to lawstudentaffairs@uakron.edu.
