- Check organization's website to ensure familiarity with mission statement and programs offered by the agency you are interested, prior to your scheduled interview.
- Check your voice message on your cell and home phone...confirm the professional tone. Would your great-grandmother think the tone, the music, the words were respectable?
- Identify your "interview wardrobe"- simplicity is safe. Take a look at yourself in the mirror- minimize any distractions- What could be a potential distraction?

- Be prepared to smile – You are sooooo close to achieving your dream...your goal.
- Think about all you have achieved to get to this moment and be prepared to give the interviewer a reason to think they should place you in a toothpaste commercial (smile).
