

Casey Weinstein

State Senator,

Ohio State Senate District 28

Casey Weinstein was sworn in as the State Senator for Ohio State Senate District 28 on January 6, 2025. Before this, he had the honor of serving as the State Representative for Ohio's 34th House District. He was first elected in 2018 and has championed veterans, education, and renewable energy initiatives during his time in office. Casey currently serves as the Ranking Member of the House Public Utilities Committee. He was appointed by Governor DeWine in 2020 to serve on the state's Holocaust and Genocide Memorial Education Commission.

Prior to his election to the Ohio House, Casey proudly served as a Hudson City Councilman from 2016 – 2019. Casey is a 2004 graduate of the United States Air Force Academy and served on Active Duty as Deputy Chief of Information Assurance at Space & Missile Systems Center in Los Angeles, and as Officer in Charge of Maintenance Support at Wright-Patterson, Air Force Base.

Casey received an MBA from The Ohio State University's Fisher College of Business in 2007. In Dayton, he was recognized as a 'Top 40 Under 40' Community Leader and has more recently been recognized as one of '30 for the Future' by the Greater Akron Chamber of Commerce.

Casey is also a Director for ServiceNow, Inc., an information technology firm, where he manages a team responsible for business development, sales, and account management activities for the Department of Defense, including the US Air Force and US Space Force. Prior to joining ServiceNow, Casey was an Area Vice President for Gartner, leading a team responsible for sales, marketing, and business development activities for the US Air Force market.

Casey is married to his Air Force Academy classmate, Amanda, the Director of Research, Knowledge, and Evaluation at the Center of Rural Innovation. They have two young daughters and a son, Nora, Emilia, and Brady.
