

RACE, MASS INCARCERATION, AND THE SHADOW OF THE LUCASVILLE PRISON RIOT

WINNER Best of Festival Online Event: Documentary Screening & Live Q&A Thursday, February 24th, 11 AM - 1 PM

Honorable Mention
Documentary Feature
Urban Mediamakers

- Featuring:
- IMAM SIDDIQUE ABDULLAH HASAN; leader of the Lucasville riot, educator, writer, and activist, calling live from Ohio State Penitentiary's death row
  - DJONES; acclaimed documentary filmmaker (Georgia, Ohio)

In this online event we are Rethinking Race in the U.S. criminal justice system.

We will first learn about the biggest prison uprising in the 20th century that happened in Lucasville, Ohio in 1993 through the award-winning documentary "The Shadow of Lucasville" (2013, DJONES). Transgressing racial boundaries, the uprising had united Sunni Muslims, the Aryan Brotherhood and the Black Gangster Disciples against injustice and ongoing abuses. Students will then have the unique opportunity to directly speak with the leader of the Sunni Muslims, IMAM SIDDIQUE HASAN, who is calling in live from Ohio State Penitentiary's Death Row and connect to an "inside" expert on racialized mass incarceration and on updates on his wrongful conviction case.

Directly connect with the TEAMS meeting by clicking here or scan QR code on left for the meeting link.

Questions? Contact Dani Jauk Ajamie, djauk@uakron.edu, 330-972-8267

An event by the Department of Criminal Justice Studies, co-sponsored by: Chagrin Arts, Center for Conflict Management, OIP-u Akron, Sociology Club

The University of Akron
Center for Conflict Management

The Ohio Innocence Project
Benedict Institute for Justice
University of Cincinnati College of Law