

Study Abroad in Le Mans, France

Summer 2019

WHAT: 4-weeks Summer program at the Université du Maine, in Le Mans, France.

WHERE: Le Mans is the city internationally known for its 24 Hours endurance car race. A bit smaller than Akron, it has a beautiful medieval quarter and is centrally located: one hour by train from Paris, close to Normandy and Brittany, as well as to the châteaux of the Loire Valley.

WHEN: June 24 to July 20, 2019 (dates to be confirmed).

HOUSING: Students will be housed in a residence hall on campus in single rooms with a bathroom. Common kitchens are available on each floor.

CREDITS: You will have a chance to earn between 4-6 credits in French. Classes offered are the equivalents of the University of Akron's Elementary French (101 or 102) or Intermediate French (201 or 202). For those who are at the intermediate level, there will also be a possibility to earn credits at the 300-level that can count towards French minor.

Before the trip, you will need to take 1-credit class, 3520: 422 Special Topic: Going Global, Preparation for Study Abroad in France, taught by Dr. Maria Adamowicz-Hariasz at the UA during one week of the intersession.

ESTMATED COST: $1500 that includes all the credits from Le Mans (up to 6), transportation in and around Le Mans, lodging, insurance, a banquet in a restaurant, cooking class, charter bus excursions (Mont Saint Michel and Saint Malo, and one of the châteaux de la Loire), local site visits: museums, cathedral, etc.

ADDITIONAL COST: 1-credit class at the UA; round-trip plane ticket; on your own additional travel and entertainment; most meals; souvenirs and miscellaneous.
