

- Part One: Application

- Each applicant must submit two current letters of recommendation
- Applicant must be full-time student in good academic and conduct standing
- Applicant has been accepted for semester or yearlong study abroad program
- Applicant must have one year or more remaining in undergraduate degree
- Full application will be submitted to the Coordinator of Study Abroad for review

- Part Two: Application Essay

- Essay must comply with the conventions of formal academic English, be spell-checked and grammar-checked, and tone-appropriate.
- Applicant will answer the following questions, whether in separate essays or one longer essay, combined:
  1. The committee is eager to learn the reasons you want to go abroad to study, but more specifically, please tell us what you hope to get from this experience. What do you imagine will change as a result of your time as an international student?
  2. What do you bring to the equation? There must be something in you that is uniquely fitted to this experience: What is it? What do you offer to those you will encounter outside of your own culture?
  3. How will this award increase the impact of your time abroad? As an ambassador, you will represent the U.S. and UA while abroad; and upon your return, your influence on other students will be significant. How do you view your responsibility to the UA committee and future traveling students?

- Part Three: Award Requirements

(student will sign this agreement upon receipt of award check)

- Award is intended only for the study abroad experience; student may not use it for other expenses or purchases
- If the student is caused to withdraw from study abroad, the award must be returned to the committee for redistribution
- As the International Ambassador, student is required to make a presentation at the following:
  1. The Education Abroad Fair or Info-session (to be arranged with SA coordinator)
  2. A lecture/meeting of the UA Women's Committee (to be arranged with chairwoman)
  3. One of the following events (to be arranged with SA coordinator):
    - Diversity Week
    - International Week
    - Rethinking Race
