Federal Direct Loan Policies and Procedures

1. Refer to your award notification letter or view your award online for your total Federal Direct Loan eligibility.
2. Loans used in the summer will reduce your fall/spring loan eligibility.
3. You must be enrolled at least half-time to be eligible for a Federal Direct Loan (6 credits for undergraduate students; 5 credits for graduate/law students).
4. This form must be received by the Office of Student Financial Aid no later than the last week of classes for the summer term.

First-time Federal Direct loan borrowers must complete Entrance Counseling and sign the Master Promissory Note.

These requirements must be completed online at www.studentloans.gov. You will need your FSA ID in order to complete these requirements.

If you are an undergraduate student and are graduating at the end of the Summer semester, your loan(s) will be prorated based on the number of credit hours are you enrolled for the Summer semester.

Are you an undergraduate student who plans to graduate at the end of the Summer 2018 semester?

Yes No If yes, how many credits hours will you be enrolled in?
