

Doctor of Audiology Northeast Ohio Au.D. Consortium Graduate Shares Insights On WKSU's NPR Radio Station

Heather Malyuk, 2013 Doctor of Audiology University of Akron/Kent State University Northeast Ohio Au.D. Consortium graduate, shared wisdom on WKSU's NPR radio station related to wellness approaches she recommends for each client based on their individual needs.

Dr. Malyuk is a trained fiddle and guitar player who owns and operates a mobile hearing wellness business, one of only a handful of audiologists in the country who specializes in this type of wellness for the professional music industry. She is also on the executive council of the National Hearing Conservation Association, along with other boards and organizations, including the American Academy of Audiology, the College Music Society's Wellness Committee and the Ohio Academy of Audiology.

Read more about Dr. Malyuk's story at <http://www.wksu.org/post/shuffle-musician-turned-audiologist-changing-tune-about-hearing-wellness#stream/0>.

Visit the College of Health Professions School of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology website at <https://www.uakron.edu/sslpa/>.