School of Counseling Offers University/Community Continuing Education Ethical Decision Making Workshop

The University of Akron School of Counseling is hosting a CEU event, Ethical Decision Making: Implications of Counseling in a Digital World on Friday, February 22, 2019 from 1:00 pm - 4:15 pm (3 Approved Ethics CEUs by CSWMFT).

Christina M. Woloch, MA.Ed., LPC, LICDC; Samantha Pfeiffer, MA, LPC and Tanya J. Middleton PCC-S, LICDC, SAP are the presenters. Topics will include the digital evolution and utilization of technology in clinical practice, advantages and disadvantages of various media sources, and application of the ethical decision making model.

A discount rate is available for UA site supervisors.

Register now: https://www.uakron.edu/soc/workshops/