

College News

School of Nursing Students/Faculty Participate in Mental Health Month

During October, designated as Mental Health Month, 17 students, 2 faculty and 1 alumna from the School of Nursing participated in a fundraiser for the National Alliance on Mental Illness. They conducted anxiety screens, educated folks about relaxation exercises, and engaged with other mental health agencies to learn more about community resources.