Columbus, OH – Deputy Solicitor – Ohio Attorney General's Office
AkronLawJobs Job No. 2617 - http://www.ag.state.oh.us
Application Deadline: 08/29/2011

Job Description - The Ohio Attorney General invites talented lawyers to apply for the position of a Deputy Solicitor in the Appeals Section. Headed by the Ohio Solicitor General, the Appeals Section represents the State of Ohio and its agencies on appeal in the United States Supreme Court of Ohio. The Section determines the cases in which the State of Ohio will seek U.S. or Ohio Supreme Court review and the position the State will take before those courts. The Section handles cases covering a wide and cutting-edge range of subject matters, including civil rights, First Amendment issues, election disputes, federal-state issues, criminal law matters, and more. The Solicitor General and Deputy Solicitors handle the State's major appellate cases. These cases often involve significant constitutional and statutory questions or prominent public policy concerns. Many cases are headed to the U.S. Supreme Court-or are already there. In short, our appellate practice touches almost every area of law. Our full range of civil appellate work includes civil rights, education, employment, consumer protection, environmental, and federalism issues, while our criminal law practice includes search-and-seizure, right-to-counsel, sentencing, and federal habeas issues.

Qualifications - Deputy Solicitors are legal scholars and practitioners with high academic achievements and a strong interest in appellate work. Candidates with judicial clerkship experience are given preference. In evaluating applications, they look particularly for strong writing and analytic aptitude. Current and recent deputies have graduated from prestigious institutions, worked at large private sector firms, and held a variety of clerkships, including at the U.S. Supreme Court, the Ohio Supreme court and various federal court of appeals.

New Jersey – 2012-2013 Judicial Law Clerks – New Jersey Judiciary
AkronLawJobs Job No. 2600 - Court Term: August 27, 2012 through August 31, 2013
Deadline: March 30, 2012 – Announcement 11-46
Position Description - Professional law clerk positions are available in the New Jersey Judiciary for individuals with strong communication and analytical skills. Supreme Court law clerks work with justices on complex cases involving difficult issues of law. Appellate Division law clerks conduct research, analyze legal data, prepare legal memoranda, process emergent motion applications, and proofread published opinions. Law clerks for assignment judges learn all aspects of court administration and assist with processing emergent motions. Trial court law clerks gain practical experience while gaining valuable insight into the judicial process. Under the direction of one or more judges over the course of the year, trial court law clerks observe judicial proceedings, attend conferences with attorneys and judges, receive training in mediation and mediate small claims cases and summarize information for judges. Tax Court law clerks perform duties similar to those assigned to law clerks in the Appellate Division and trial courts, but do not mediate cases.

Requirements:
- Law clerks must have graduated from a law school approved by the American Bar Association by the time of their law clerk appointment. The Judiciary’s law clerkship program is intended for recent law school graduates who have not yet engaged in the practice of law. Selected candidates will be required to provide an official, final law school transcript, not a photocopy, which includes the date of graduation from their law school at the time of hire.
- Excellent writing and analytical skills are essential.

MEDIATION TRAINING: It is helpful to have completed a course in mediation prior to the start of the clerkship. Under Court Rule, all trial court law clerks who will serve as mediators must first complete the Judiciary sponsored 12-hour mediation training or its equivalent. Applicants selected for clerkships can request a waiver from attending the Judiciary’s training program at the start of the court term by providing documentation that confirms that they successfully completed an approved alternative dispute resolution course.

AUTHORIZATION TO WORK: US Citizenship is not required. Selected candidate must be authorized to work in the US according to Department of Homeland Security, US Citizenship and Immigration Services regulations.

Information for Applicants - Approximately 480 clerkships are available. Of those, a limited number of clerkships exist for the Supreme Court, Superior Court Appellate Division, Superior Court Assignment Judges, Superior Court Chancery Division in general equity court, and in the Tax Court. Applicants interested in those positions should apply early during the hiring process. Most openings exist in the Superior Court Law Division in civil and criminal court, and Superior Court Chancery Division in family court. For additional information see the Judiciary’s website at www.judiciary.state.nj.us/lawclerks. Minorities, women, individuals with disabilities and other protected class members are encouraged to apply.

Philadelphia, PA – Public Interest Law Fellowship Program – Independence Foundation

AkronLawJobs Job No. 2688 - The Independence Foundation is pleased to announce the seventeenth year of the Independence Foundation Public Interest Law Fellowship Program. The Fellowship Program is designed to support public interest legal services by funding the compensation of lawyers at public interest law organizations located in Philadelphia and its surrounding counties.

Each Fellowship will provide the Fellow an annual salary in the amount of $46,000, plus the cost of health care benefits, disability insurance and employer’s withholding taxes. In those instances where the Fellow has incurred debt in funding his or her education, the Fellowship will also include an amount payable to assist the Fellow in meeting these obligations up to a maximum of $10,000 a year. The duration of a Fellowship is one year, subject to renewal for one additional year.

Grants will be made to public interest law organizations that provide services to the groups described above. It will be the responsibility of each applicant for a Fellowship to secure a position with such an organization as part of the application process. The Foundation’s decision to grant a Fellowship will depend not only on the character, commitment and qualifications of the applicant, but also on the worthiness of the public interest project the applicant wishes to pursue as an Independence Foundation Fellow.

During the 2012 year of the Fellowship Program, the Foundation expects to grant a maximum of three Fellowships to law school graduates who are within five years of graduation, with the expectation that these Fellows will begin to render service in the public interest by the end of September 2012. Applications are due on September 28, 2011.
