The 17th Annual Cameos of Caring Gala, sponsored by The School of Nursing and College of Health Professions, was held on November 10, 2018.

Nine awardees from seven area hospitals were recognized for excellence in nursing. Six scholarships were distributed from the proceeds of the Cameos of Caring Scholarship fund.

Dr. Cynthia Capers, former Dean of the College of Nursing, is responsible for bringing the Cameos of Caring program to the University. Her vision along with the support of Johnson and Johnson has allowed the School of Nursing to continue to use Cameos of Caring to build bridges within the regional health care community.

Pictured above, the professionals recognized were, starting bottom row, left to right, are: Anne Johnson, Stacy Eberhart, Caryl Karalic, Meg Lapsevich, Jamie Lyman, (top row, from left) Dr. Cynthia Capers, Amy Funfgeld, Nicole Leon, Troy Portis and Tracy Edwards.

The six student scholarship recipients were Jalyn Austin, Tyler Blake, Breana Hovest, Chase Lewis, Adam Skutt, and Jacob Watkins.
